INTRODUCING THE BOOK

Look at the cover with the students.
What do you notice about the cover?
Where is the little girl?
What do you think the title could be?
Why do you think the book is called “Beach Feet”
We can see the girl is at the beach, but what do you think the author meant by mentioning feet?
What is the little girl wearing on her feet?

FOCUS OF INSTRUCTION

*Let's read page 2 together. (Use a shared approach.)
Now what do you think beach feet might mean?*

*Let's read page 3 together.
Who is Minnie talking to when she is asking this question?
Who does she expect to answer it?
Where is Minnie? So who might she ask?
Let's read to find out.*

*Look at the picture on page 4.
Who is Minnie going to ask first?
Let's read to see. Read the page together.
Did Minnie ask her father? Why not? Were his feet "beach feet"
Who else do you think Minnie might ask?*

*Now read pages 5 and 6 in your head.
Who did Minnie want to ask? Did she ask them? Why not?
What were they doing? Did they have beach feet?
Let's read page 7 together. (Begin reading first two lines using a share approach.)
Now read the rest in your head.
Who did Minnie approach this time?
Did Grandma have beach feet?
What did Minnie want to do?
Do you think they will go to the beach?*

FOLLOWING THE READING

*Read the last page in your head to find out.
Did Minnie and Grandma go to the beach?*

ORAL DISCUSSION

- Read the poem At the Sea Side by Robert Louis Stevenson on the inside back cover of the book. Why did the author include this poem at the back of the book? Is this something you did when you went to the beach? What do you think was happening in the second stanza?
- Discuss with students that Beach Feet is a personal narrative.
- Explain that a personal narrative is a story that someone tells about themselves.

WRITING POSSIBILITIES

- Students write a personal narrative about going to a place, or about some activity they enjoy doing with their family.
