INTRODUCING THE BOOK

Cover: Contrast the faces of the boy and the dog in the cover illustration: what are they thinking and feeling and why? Sustain the discussion with written support (see example). From the cover illustration and the title, where do you think the setting for this story will be?

Pages 2-3: Look at the boy's face...do you agree with your predictions about the cover? Does he have a problem? How is he going to solve it?
(He will talk his parents out of eating the broccoli, the dog will eat it ...)

FOCUS OF INSTRUCTION

Pages 4-5: Let's practice reading the dialogue so it sounds like someone is talking (read together chorally for fluency, expression and pace). What do the illustrations help us know about James?

Page 12: Now what problem is the author presenting us with? (there's broccoli hidden in the milk). How might James solve this problem?

Pages 2-5: Now let's go back to pages 2-5 and consider words we might substitute for "said". (said – mumbled, called, demanded, whispered...discuss these word meanings for vocabulary development).

EXAMPLE OF WRITTEN SUPPORT

Predictions

The boy is thinking/feeling

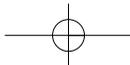

I won't eat this!
I want to go play baseball
maybe if I hide this broccoli
they will think I ate it.

The dog is thinking/feeling

Yum...will I get some table food today?
I want to chase that ball!

FOLLOWING THE READING

- Children could discuss/write a group story using just the dog in the illustrations and telling the story from the dog's point of view.
- Children can write their own version of how James solves his new problem...the broccoli hidden in the milk.
